THE WEEKEND GAMEPLAN

WIN THE WEEKEND. OWN MONDAY.

How to actually enjoy your weekends without feeling like you've undone everything by Monday. Simple principles. No guilt. Full control.

THE WEEKEND TRAP

MONDAY TO FRIDAY, SORTED. THEN WHAT?

Most people are brilliant all week, then fall apart at the first sight of a beer garden or a takeaway menu. One meal never ruined anyone's progress. A whole weekend of "sod it" does.

Weekends are part of your life, so they're part of the plan. When you treat them as time off, you end up in a cycle: strict all week, blow out at the weekend, guilty on Sunday night, strict again on Monday. This gameplan breaks that cycle.

ENJOY YOUR WEEKEND AND STILL FEEL GREAT ON MONDAY.

Simple principles. Clear expectations. No guilt. Full control.

YOUR TARGETS

THE 4 WEEKEND TARGETS

Hit these 4 and you stay on track, whatever the weekend throws at you.

Steps

8,000 to 10,000 a day. Keep moving even when you're relaxing.

Protein

2 protein focused meals minimum. Keeps you full and supports your progress.

Water

2 litres a day. Better energy, and better decisions.

Mindset

Make memories, not excuses. Enjoy yourself and stay lined up with your goals.

These 4 give you the freedom to enjoy your weekend inside a structure that works. Hit them and you'll feel great on Monday.

PLAN AHEAD

PLAN YOUR FOOD BEFORE THE CHAOS

1. Eat normally during the day.
   Don't "save calories" for later. You'll arrive starving and make choices you regret.
2. Get your protein in early.
   A protein breakfast sets you up for better decisions all day.
3. Eat properly before you go out.
   Something substantial. You'll drink less and choose better.
4. Decide your drinks before the first one.
   Know your number and stick to it. A plan takes the guesswork out of the moment.

PLAN A LITTLE, STRESS A LOT LESS

Most weekend wobbles happen when people wing it, then make choices when they're tired, hungry and surrounded by temptation. Use the Weekend Game Plan tool in HQ on a Thursday or Friday. Tell it what's on and it builds your weekend with you in 2 minutes.

DRINKS

SMART DRINK CHOICES

You can have a social life and keep your progress.

SPIRITS WITH A LOW CALORIE MIXER

Gin and slimline tonic. Vodka, soda and fresh lime. Simple swaps that save hundreds of calories on a night out.

ONE DRINK, ONE WATER

Alternate. You stay hydrated, you pace yourself, and you feel a lot better the next day.

SLOW DOWN

Don’t neck drinks because everyone else is. Enjoy the company, not just the glass in your hand.

If you drink, drink on purpose. The difference between a great night and a regrettable one usually comes down to awareness. Planning a big one? The Alcohol Guide in HQ gives you a plan for the night.

MOVE

THE WEEKEND ACTIVITY RULE

Move your body every day of the weekend. A morning walk, a gym session, a YouTube workout. Even 20 minutes counts.

WHY IT MATTERS

Keep the body moving and the mind stays sharp. Better choices follow. This has nothing to do with burning off what you ate. It's about staying the person who looks after themselves.

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE

A Saturday morning walk clears your head. A quick workout reminds you who you are. Movement creates momentum, and momentum makes the next good choice easier.

SOMETHING BEATS NOTHING. EVERY SINGLE TIME.

THE SUNDAY RESET

SET UP NEXT WEEK BEFORE IT STARTS

1. Food shop.
   Protein, veg and easy meals in the fridge. Take the friction away.
2. Plan your meals.
   A rough idea of Monday to Friday is enough.
3. Plan your training.
   Put the sessions in your calendar. What gets scheduled gets done.
4. Evening walk.
   Clear your head, think back on the weekend, get ready for Monday.
5. Water topped up.
   Finish Sunday hydrated and start Monday ahead.

10 minutes on a Sunday makes Monday feel clean, calm and in control. Fill in the Sunday Prep in the group on Sunday evening and I'll go through it first thing Monday.

THE REAL GOAL

CONSISTENT BEATS PERFECT

If you enjoyed yourself and hit your targets, that's a winning weekend.

YOUR WEEKEND WINS

- Own your choices, no guilt
- Enjoy your weekend properly
- Hit your 4 targets
- Show up again on Monday

5 good days don't disappear because you had a big Saturday. Your body works on weeks and months, not 48 hours.

WIN YOUR WEEK BY NOT LOSING YOUR WEEKEND.
